FRANKFORD PUBLIC LIBRARY JUNE HAPPENINGS

“Build a Better World” Summer Reading Kick off Party – Thursday June 8, 5-8:30pm - Join us at the Frankford Town Park to kick off our 2017 Summer Reading Program "Build A Better World"! Enjoy live music by Shades of Blue, an all-female jazz band! Entertainment for children will include face painting, library activities and more! Grab a bite to eat at our food trucks and shop for our brand new FPL merchandise! We'll end the evening with movie shorts courtesy of Envision Frankford. NOTE: The Frankford Library will close at 5pm so that everyone may attend the kick off party!!!

Wee Read Story Time – Tuesday, June 13 & 20 – 11am – 11:45am. A story time for children ages 3-5, and their caregivers, to promote early literacy. Come listen to a story and engage with other preschoolers. No registration needed.

StoryWalk at the Frankford Town Park – Tuesday, June 27, 2017 – 11am-11:45am - Join us as we take our Wee Read Story Timers to the Frankford Town Park for a walking story! Please wear sunscreen and bring a cold drink along. We will all meet at the Frankford Town Park.

PAWS – Monday, June 26, from 11-12 pm. Children read to trained literacy dogs to improve and practice their reading skills. Buddy, Bo, and Riley love to hear stories!!

Recent Reads – Thursday, June 1, 10:30 – 12pm. Please join Cindy in a lively and literate discussion of current favorites!

TAG – Wed., June 7, 5-6pm. Teen Advisory Group - Teens who want to help Frankford Public Library by offering input about books and programs geared towards teens. You talk, we listen, and together we will make great programs!

Monday Night Lites – Monday, June 5, 6-8pm - Join a light-hearted book group where the emphasis is on a good read and better discussions! We will be discussing "The Nightingale" by Kristin Hannah.

Teen Reads – Wednesday, June 21, 5-6pm. A Recent Reads book discussion for teens.

Book Discussion – Thursday, June 15 from 1-3pm - Please join us for a discussion of "Rebecca" by Daphne Du Maurier.

Family Movie Night – Thursday June 22 from 6-8pm.

FANDOM Squad Meetup – Thursday June 29, 6-7:30pm - If you love stuff, then the Fandom Squad is the place for you! Geek out over your favorite fandoms with other amazing people! Come tell us all about your Fandom and learn about others!

DASEF presents “Think it-Build it-Test it! Wednesday, June 21, 2-3pm - Thinking like an engineer can help us build a better world! Bring your child to the library to introduce them to some great books about engineering and design, to learn about the engineering process, and to let them test their skills on some cool problem-solving projects! You and your child will build and test a catapult and a marble roller coaster. Build three bridge support columns and test which shape will support the most weight. Plastic eggs and Play-doh will give you the chance to build the tallest tower. Explore Ralph Masiello's Robot Drawing Book, design a make and take robot picture, and watch our wind-up robot jump and dance! Books lead the way, as engineering saves the day.

Cascading Carlos the Juggler – Wednesday, June 28, 2-3pm - Join us for Carlos's high-energy juggling class with plenty of time for YOU to practice the art of juggling! NOTE: This event will be held at the Frankford Fire Hall.

Make it Monday – Book Wreath – Monday, June 26, 6-8pm - Create a book wreath out of retired tomes. Please bring a glue gun if you have one.

Kids Book Club - Monday, June 26, 3-4pm -Open to all children grades K-5! A Recent Reads discussion for kids. Come tell us about what you've been reading and learn about new books! Chances to win a prize and enjoy snacks with friends.
